

Senator Fearon Speaks on Permanent Registration

At Convention of United Commercial Travelers at the Governor Clinton Hotel—Sea Serpents Enjoy Banquet at Golden Rule Inn—Ladies Are Entertained at Hotel Stuyvesant.

Routine business was transacted at both the morning and afternoon sessions of the Grand Council Convention of United Commercial Travelers of America at the Governor Clinton Hotel Thursday. One of the high points of the convention was the address given by Senator George H. Fearon, state senator from the thirty-sixth senatorial district. The selection of the city for next year's convention was laid over until today on account of the press of business. Election of officers is also scheduled for today.

Senator Fearon from Onondaga county spoke on the subject of permanent registration and its benefits, especially as it pertains to the traveling men. The permanent registration law as in effect in many other states permits the permanent registration of city voters as well as those in the county districts. At present there must be personal registration each year in the cities while in the counties the names are carried over year after year without a personal registration.

Senator Fearon stated that bills were now in process of preparation and would be introduced at the next session of the legislature whereby the permanent registration principal as in effect in many states would be offered to the people of this state. This would be of great benefit to traveling men. He mentioned the various states where this system of registration is in effect and stated that in those states the law was working out well. The publicity given to such type of registration in those states was preventing illegal registration and it was found that the system was working out with fine results. Neighbors knew when a person was removed from the district or was a great preventive from voting non-residents or persons who had died. In the case of death the bureau of vital statistics cared for the elimination of such names from the registration lists. In case a voter does not exercise his right for two consecutive years the name is stricken from the registration list. Many advantages of this form of registration were advanced by the speaker.

Prospects of Big Attendance.

Prospects of the big attendance at the convention were bright today. A delegation from Troy numbering fifty was expected to arrive in town during the day with its own band to participate in the parade this afternoon. All day Thursday arrivals were being registered at the registration booth in the Governor Clinton at a theatre party at the Broadway theatre and at 8:15 o'clock there was a dinner and ladies' party at the Hotel Stuyvesant. The party was held in the main dining room and an entertainment program of considerable merit was given.

Sea Serpents' Banquet.

What proved to be one of the big features of the day for the men was the banquet of the Sea Serpents which was held at Golden Rule Inn at Ulster Park. The delegates who were members of that branch of the order made a short parade in automobiles about the uptown streets and then in cars and buses were conveyed to the inn where a banquet was served and an evening of entertainment was enjoyed. There were in attendance 92 men.

Democratic Debt Now $557,775

Washington, June 7 (AP).—The deficit of $1,500,000 left on the hands of the Democratic national committee at the close of the unsuccessful Presidential campaign of Alfred E. Smith has been reduced to $557,775 in outstanding obligations. A report to William T. Fisher, chief of the House, by James W. Gerard, treasurer of the Democratic group, listed contributions since March 1 as amounting to $1,055,225.

J. R. Kunt, treasurer of the Republican national committee, also filed a report which showed a balance of $213,761 as of June 1.

Among the larger Democratic contributors were $150,000 each from John J. Raskob, chairman of the Democratic national committee, William F. Kenney, Herbert H. Lehman, all of New York city; $100,000 from M. J. Neenan, and $50,000 each from Bernard M. Baruch, William H. Todd, T. J. Mara, John F. Gilchrist, James J. Flaherty and Representative Parker Corning.

Poland Province Suffers Famine

Vilno, Poland, June 7 (AP).—The entire province of Vilno is suffering from famine in consequence of the unusually cold weather, especially the districts of Dzisna and Glembokie, in the northern part of the province.

The misfortunes of these two districts started last year after a bad harvest of flax, which is the country's principal product. The population of these districts has always been poor and lived on potatoes and bread, eating meat and eggs on such exceptional occasions as weddings, christenings, Christmas and Easter. The bad flax harvest of last year did not permit them to make adequate provisions of grain and potatoes and since March many families started to starve. The government began relief activities and for the present 30,000 people are profiting by this help in the district of Dzisna only.

This help will have to be extended, since the number of families with exhausted food provisions continuously increased.

Identity of Young Woman a Mystery

Chicago, June 7 (AP).—The identity of the young woman known as Barbara Cole, who leaped 12 stories to her death from her Gold Coast apartment Wednesday night, became today as much a mystery as the whereabouts of Edwin Page, broker, whose failure to return her love was given as the reason for her suicide.

An investigation by the coroner's office uncovered the information that Miss Cole was best known among a circle of Gold Coast acquaintances as "Donna Barron." Later she identified herself as "Barbara Cowles," and again as "Donna Berry." The management of one apartment building recognized her picture in the papers as of a former tenant, "Eva Caldwell," and a hotel manager said she was known to him as "Barbara Barnes." Her baggage showed that identification marks had been obliterated and remarked "B. C."

Page, a member of the Chicago Stock Exchange, married and the father of two children, did not appear at his office yesterday and the inquest into the young woman's death was postponed until such time as he appears.

Today's Tribune said that a report that Miss Cole was the daughter of England's envoy to Norway was disproved in a dispatch from London last night.

FATAL SHOOTING ENDS IN JURY DISAGREEMENT

Arlington, Va., June 7 (AP).—J. W. Crowe, Washington county deputy sheriff, is at liberty under a $5,000 bond today after inability by a jury to reach a verdict yesterday afternoon ended the commonwealth's initial prosecution of a murder charge against him in connection with the fatal shooting near here the night of May 6 of J. W. Kendrick, 15-year-old Emory and Henry College student.

Crowe is under joint indictment with W. D. Worley, another deputy sheriff, and James McReynolds, Arlington policeman. All cases were continued to the September term of court with the original $5,000 bond for each officer standing.

Morgan Silent on Return.

New York, June 7 (AP).—J. P. Morgan, senior member of the American delegation to the Paris reparations conference, returned today on the liner Mauretania, saying nothing about the conference, but breaking his custom as a sea traveler by posing for Ship News photographers.

Unlicensed Driver Fined $5.

Charged with operating a car without having secured a license, Henry Murray of Saugerties was arrested by State Trooper Kline in the town of Ulster. He was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Charles P. Jennings of Katrine and fined $5.

Draft Legislation To Reorganize and Unify Dry Force

Washington, June 7 (AP).—The prohibition bill, which President Hoover's request for appointment of a joint congressional committee to join with administrative groups already at work on the preparation of legislation for the reorganization and unification, so far as possible, of prohibition enforcement machinery in the department of justice. He wants to see such legislation enacted at the regular session of congress which begins in December.

Moves already under way at the capitol to comply with President Hoover's request for appointment of a joint congressional committee to join with administrative groups already at work on the preparation of legislation for the reorganization and unification, so far as possible, of prohibition enforcement machinery in the department of justice. He wants to see such legislation enacted at the regular session of congress which begins in December.

One of the agencies which will cooperate with that committee, the President's new national commission for law observance and enforcement, already has heard Secretary Mellon, now chiefly responsible for administration of the prohibition laws, and Attorney General Mitchell, whose department is to become the principal enforcement agency under the administration plan.

They were the first to be heard in the commission's contemplated two-year investigation of general enforcement and observance, presenting their views behind closed doors at the opening session of its second meeting, which was confronted today with a study of crime statistics presented by the attorney general.

The President's message drawing congress into his enforcement-observance program disclosed that through his cabinet members and the inter-departmental committee which was organized some time ago to make a preliminary study of the situation, the administration was prepared with a fairly comprehensive plan for the complicated task of transferring enforcement machinery to the justice department.

The first move of Congress to fit into the program followed quickly on the receipt of the President's message with the introduction by Senator Jones, Republican, Washington, a dry leader, to provide for the appointment of a committee of three Senators and four Representatives to work out the comprehensive legislative program suggested. This resolution will be taken up by the judiciary committee Monday, and comments on both sides of the capitol have indicated it will meet with little opposition.

Extensive Study Needed.

The task it will be assigned undoubtedly will keep its members in Washington much of the summer. As administration officials view the problem, that task will involve an extensive study of existing laws and regulations, together with consideration of governmental policies relating to the coast guard and customs services of the treasury and the immigration inspection service of the labor department, as well as the present prohibition prosecution machinery of the justice department.

NEW WORLD SEAPLANE ALTITUDE RECORD.

Washington, June 7 (AP).—Establishment of a new world's seaplane altitude record by Lieutenant Apollo Soucek of the navy in his attempt Tuesday was announced today by the National Aeronautic Association after a check of his barograph by the Bureau of Standards. Soucek exceeded by 560 feet the record of 37,935 made by Lieut. C. C. Champion, of the navy, in the same plane two years ago.

Mr. Skinner will have John Barrymore's role in "The Private Secretary," a farce as popular in London as in this country.

Mexico's Problem May Be Settled

Mexico City, June 7 (AP).—Actual negotiations for settlement of Mexico's church-state problem are expected to begin here Monday morning between Monsignor Leopoldo Ruiz Y Flores, Archbishop of Mexico, and Bishop Pascual Diaz of Tabasco, and government officials.

Authoritative sources last night revealed the two prelates, the former of whom was understood to have received a special papal commission for the task, were expected to arrive here Saturday, there was a possibility that a basis of settlement would be announced before the end of next week.

United States Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow and Manuel Teller, Mexican ambassador at Washington, also will be here, a fact labelled officially as a coincidence but which many believed to have a direct connection with the negotiations. Mr. Morrow particularly has been foremost in his desire that the problem which has so long agitated Mexico is solved.

Babe Ruth "Very Ill" Says Wife

New York, June 7 (AP).—Babe Ruth is "very ill," his wife and bride of less than two months told The Associated Press today, when asked about published reports that the home run king would be out of the Yankee lineup for at least a month and maybe longer, due to a weakened heart.

Mrs. Ruth declined to see interviewers or to go into any detail about the babe's illness. She said Ruth was sleeping and refused to disturb him.

"Any comment as to his condition will have to come from Dr. King, the attending physician," Mrs. Ruth said.

At the office of the Yankees it was declared no report had been made by Dr. King and that nothing was known about the seriousness of the babe's condition. According to the Evening World Ruth is suffering from a stubborn lung condition and has overtaxed his heart.

Reformed Synod Elects Dr. Poling

INAUGURATE PLANE-TRAIN CROSS COUNTRY SERVICE

New York, June 7 (AP).—The Aviation Corporation, new $200,000,000 holding company, announced today that it would inaugurate plane-train service across the country on June 14, three weeks ahead of the scheduled start of a similar system by Transcontinental Air Transport.

The Aviation Corporation route will be by New York Central trains between New York and Cleveland, by air for the 1,037 miles between Cleveland and Garden City, Kan., and by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe between Garden City and the west coast. The air link will be operated by Universal Aviation Corporation, a subsidiary of the Aviation Corporation.

The T. A. T. will use the Pennsylvania and the Santa Fe railroads for the links between New York and Columbus and between Waynoka, Okla., and Clovis, N. M., air transportation being afforded between Columbus and Waynoka and between Clovis and the west coast.

MORE PROOF WANTED IN MODENA DIVORCE CASE

At a hearing before Justice Taylor, recently at Newburgh, Jennie Fell of Modena failed to receive interlocutory decree of divorce from Royal Alphonse Fell, New York Central railroad fireman, because the justice sought corroboration of the testimony of Alex H. Weeks, a private detective, Earl H. Houghtaling of Walden agreed to present the required additional testimony. The Fells were married at Poughkeepsie on May 7, 1921.

Two Problems Before Dawes.

Washington, June 7 (AP).—Charles G. Dawes, the new American ambassador to Great Britain, who is sailing today from New York for England to enter the diplomatic field for the first time, will be confronted with two of the most knotty international problems of recent years—naval armament reduction and the settlement of inter-allied world war debts.

Reparations Experts Finish Work.

Paris, June 7 (AP).—The reparations experts finished their work on the text of their final report Sunday before 5 o'clock this evening but as there were some slight changes to be made in the text, it was decided not to have the signatures affixed before 5:30 (11:30 a. m. E. S. T.).

Lindberghs On Yacht Off Maine

Portland, Me., June 6 (AP).—The cruiser Monette with Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh and his wife, the former Anne Morrow, aboard, was "going east" along the Maine coast today.

It was thought the young couple might be heading for the island of North Haven and the summer home of Mrs. Lindbergh's father, Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow.

The little cruiser made York Harbor last night and Colonel Lindbergh took on supplies sufficient to run him to North Haven, about 100 miles up the coast.

"Yes" and "no" were his stock replies to queries from H. M. Philbrick at whose wharf he docked his boat to re-stock.

The Monette was tied up but an hour and then cast off and finally anchored off Cape Porpoise, some 15 miles east of York Harbor.

Lecture Saturday At R. & G. Store

Prof. Charles Munter, inventor and psychopathologist, who has appeared in all the leading cities of the United States and Europe, including London, Paris and Berlin, will lecture at the Rose and Gorman store on North Front street every day from Saturday, June 8, to Saturday, June 15, inclusive, at 2:30 p. m. They will be given in a specially devised auditorium which will accommodate hundreds of visitors.

The lectures, dealing with posture as a means of keeping healthy, are given to show the outstanding features of Nulife corsets for women and Nulife belts for men. The inventor's discourse also explains the advantages of his famous shoulder braces.

Prof. Munter, broken in health when a young man, will tell how he breathed his way back to good health through correct posture, obtained by aid of the shoulder brace he invented. He subsequently invented Nulife Corsets for women and Nulife Belts for men, so that all might have the opportunity of keeping fit through good posture.

The lectures will be free and the management hopes that all will take advantage of them. In connection with the lectures, Madame Florence Dupont, world famous figure beauty specialist, will be at the Rose and Gorman store to give free consultation.

TREATY ANNIVERSARY IS DAY OF MOURNING

Berlin, June 7 (AP).—The tenth anniversary of the treaty of Versailles, June 28, will be an official day of mourning not only for the German schools but for the Evangelical churches as well as a protest against the accusation of war guilt.

A resolution adopted by the Church Central Committee today said: "With the whole German people the German Evangelical Church Committee, who selected representatives of the national church in Germany, sees with sorrow the tenth return of the day of Versailles.

"In the Versailles documents the Germans are stamped as war criminals. That is unbearable for the German nation. All nations and churches with a sense of justice and truth must act toward the earliest possible removal of the war blame ascribed to the German people.

"Therefore this committee finds it desirable that June 28, 1929, be a day of mourning for the Evangelical National Church of Germany."

W. T. GRANT COMPANY SALES SHOW LARGE GAIN FOR MAY

With a gain of over 24 per cent for the entire chain, and an increase of over 5 per cent in the stores open a full year, the W. T. Grant Company has reported a very successful May business.

The W. T. Grant Company's May report for all stores including those opened last year shows sales of $5,653,959.91, as compared with sales of $4,590,662.47 a gain of $1,063,297.44 or 23.15 per cent. The figures for the first five months of the year are: 1929 sales $21,456,938.59 as compared with 1928 sales of $16,925,068.99, an increase of $4,531,869.60.

Paris, June 7 (AP).—The experts' report liquidating the long controversial reparations problem that has troubled the peace of Europe for the past ten years, was signed at the Hotel George V today.

The signatures to the historic document which fixed the payments that Germany must make to the Allied creditors for the next fifty-nine years were affixed at 5:50 p. m. (11:58 a. m. eastern standard time.)

It had been planned to sign the report at 5 p. m. Paris time (11 a. m. eastern standard time) but it was almost that hour when the last-minute polishing had been completed.

Annuities Reduced.

The experts' report to the reparations commission unanimously recommends reduction of the reparations annuities during the next 37 years from 2,500,000,000 gold marks (approximately $600,000,000) to an average of 2,050,000,000 gold marks (approximately $492,000,000).

It recommends annuities of 1,700,000,000 gold marks (approximately $408,000,000) for the last 22 years subject to the profits of the International Bank to be created under the reparations agreement and an arrangement for amortization in which the creditor powers will participate.

Advantages Stated Briefly.

The report dwells upon the following advantages:

Decreasing the burden for Germany.

Taking of the reparations question out of politics.

Putting it into an organization of orderly business.

The elimination of outside organizations that exercise a control in Germany and the early mobilization of a considerable part of the first 37 annuities to give the creditor powers important sums available for the reduction of their own interior debts.

The annuities are divisible into a post-poneable and non-postponable parts, but there is no distinction in the report between the part of the annuities applicable to reparations and the part attributed to payment of the creditors' war debt.

Governments Must Act.

With the four-month negotiations, that at times threatened to break down, now definitely settled, the next step was up to the governments involved, ratification of the experts' recommendations being necessary, as well as complete plans for working out the details.

Plan Suggested by American.

By the settlement the German experts gave their approval to the annuities suggested by Owen D. Young, American financial expert, whose unceasing labors to find some sort of agreement at length had been crowned with success.

The sounds as well as the sight of today's culmination ceremony were recorded, microphones being present as well as cameras and flashlights.

Four Financiers Absent.

Four noted financiers who sat in on that first session almost four months ago were missing when the final scene was enacted. Lord Rotherstone, British financier, died in the midst of negotiations when the conference seemed on the rocks. Worn out by his exertions he collapsed and died of heart disease. Albert Voegler, German delegate, resigned rather than make any further concessions to the allied demands. J. P. Morgan of the United States went home as soon as he was sure an agreement had been reached, while Sir Josiah Stamp, who bore the brunt of all the British delegation after the death of Lord Rotherstone, followed Mr. Morgan's example. He went to sea to recuperate his almost exhausted forces and is now making a cruise in his private yacht.

Young Congratulates Experts.

It was a few minutes after 5 o'clock before the signing had completely ended. Mr. Young, as chairman of the conference, made a short address and two minutes later adjourned the conference.

"I congratulate you on the successful completion of your work, which has not been done in secrecy, but in the way that wise business should be done. The plan reflects the best judgment of the conference," said Mr. Young.

"It has been accomplished, not by governments, but by business people working in the open and making their activities known through the modern press with its wonderful facilities for world-wide communication."

"Is there any further business? No? Then the conference stands adjourned."

BRINGING TEXT BOOK PROBLEMS DOWN TO DATE.

New York, June 7 (AP).—School children of this city no longer will be compelled to wrestle with such traditional mathematical problems as carpeting floors and splitting cord wood.

A new syllabus issued by Superintendent William J. O'Shea calls for the modernizing of mathematical problems, such as figuring family budgets, bank interest, sales discounts and taxes. Greater stress also will be placed on oral work with the view of solving mathematical problems of everyday life without paper and pencil.

Ordination of Rev. August Pfau, Jr.

Shokan, June 6.—The Dutch Reformed Church of Shokan was filled to capacity on Wednesday evening with members of the congregations of both the local and Shandaken Reformed Churches, as well as a number of visitors from other places, who came to witness the ordination of the Rev. August Pfau, Jr. A large number of people came up about six o'clock and threatened to interfere with the ceremonies had passed by eight, the hour set for the services to commence, and the churchyard was soon filled with cars. The interior of the stone church had been beautifully decorated with palms, columbine and lilies by the ladies, helping greatly to enhance the atmosphere of solemnity and reverence which characterized the occasion.

After the rendering of the organ prelude by Miss Hazel Bell, during which the visiting ministers advanced in a body and took their places in the forward pews, and the singing of the Doxology, the invocation was given by the Rev. Henry Decker of Hurley, who also led the congregation in singing the Lord's prayer. This was followed by a scripture reading by the Rev. George Gosselink, after which a prayer was offered by the Rev. J. B. Steketee, synodical missionary.

The Rev. A. V. S. Wallace, D. D., of Flatbush church, stressed in his sermon the need of a more praying church, bringing out this prevailing theme in a most interesting manner. Dr. Wallace's sermon was followed by the general singing of that grand old hymn, "Spirit of God," after which the ordination and installation service took place.

The Rev. Victor W. Simons of Gardiner, president of the Classis, who is a friend and former schoolmate of Mr. Pfau, read the service of ordination and installation, during which the several pastors performed the ceremony of the laying on of hands, symbolical of the bestowing of the Holy Spirit upon the new pastor. Mr. Pfau then signed the form.

In his charge to the pastor the Rev. C. Van Tol of Stone Ridge voiced his hearty agreement with Dr. Wallace's injunction to consistent and earnest prayer by church people. The charge was followed by a vocal solo, most pleasingly rendered by Homer Markle, Jr., a member of the choir of the Shokan church.

The Rev. Wilbur F. Stowe of the Reformed Church of the Comforter, who made the charge to the people, is well known to the members of Shokan and Shandaken congregations. Mr. Stowe, in his charge, said that there is a tendency nowadays to demand considerable business efficiency in a pastor, and in some cases this demand is so insistent as to interfere seriously with the minister's spiritual activities. The Rev. Mr. Stowe deplored this condition, declaring that the pastor should have his mind free of such matters as might tend to preclude effectual work in the strictly religious field, and added, with pardonable pride, that during his 15 years' incumbency of the Kingston pastorate he had never had to worry about the money matters of the church.

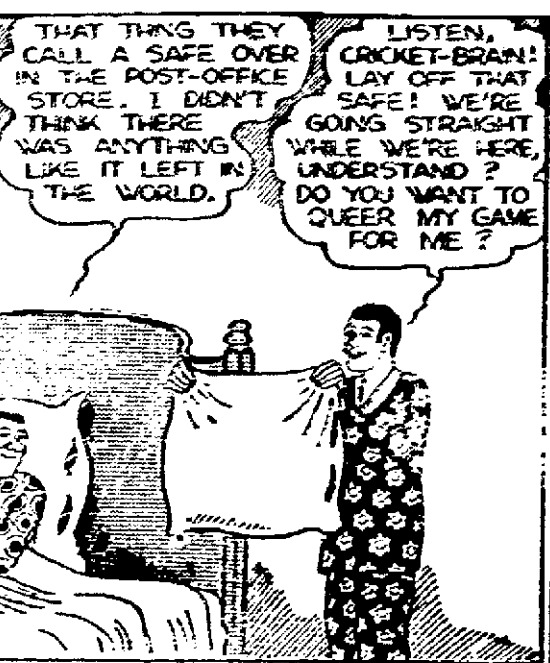

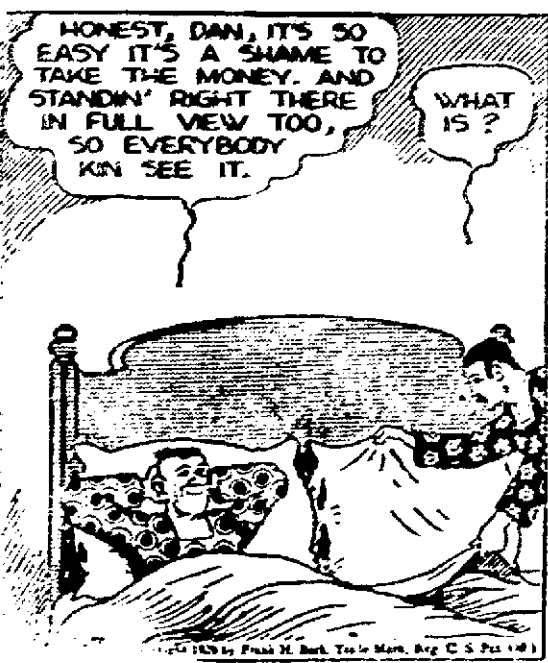

In his remarks relative to the establishment of the pastorate, the Rev. Mr. Simons, addressing the new pastor, said, "Well, now, you have been charged and re-charged, so that like a storage battery, you are presumably all set to go." Mr. Simons said also that Mr. Stowe having stated he always received his monthly check promptly every time his consistory met, that he would endeavor to call his consistory together every two weeks. Prayer was then offered by the Gardiner clergyman, which was followed by the singing of hymn No. 354, and the benediction by the Rev. August Pfau.

After the conclusion of the services in the auditorium, the people repaired to the spacious social hall downstairs, where a bountiful supply of eatables had been prepared by the ladies. A great box of sandwiches had been provided by the women of the Mt. Tremper church, while the local Aid Society furnished cake, ice cream and coffee. Indeed, so much in the way of refreshments was contributed that a greatly supply remained to be apportioned among the sick and shut-in persons of the two communities. Mrs. Fred Adair and Mrs. Frank Barringer were in charge of the supper, and a number of the ladies helped to serve. Following the refreshments a social hour was enjoyed by those present, the affair breaking up about 11:30 o'clock.

The Rev. Mr. Pfau, the new pastor, is a recent graduate of the Rutgers Theological seminary at New Brunswick, N. J. He is a young man of genial disposition and a preacher of ability. A happy feature of the ordination and installation services was the presence of Mrs. Pfau, mother of the pastor, and her sister. On the whole the ceremony was perhaps the most impressive affair of its kind that has taken place in this section in many years, while the social part of the occasion proved notably successful in cementing more firmly the ties of good fellowship and religious sympathy which has long existed between the sister churches and between them and the Classis.

A Spring Dinner.
The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Clinton Avenue M. E. Church will serve a spring dinner at Epworth Hall, Wednesday evening, June 12, from 5 to 8 o'clock.

Mellon Presents Views on Crime

Washington, June 7 (AP).—Secretary Mellon was the first high government official to present his views on America's crime and lawlessness problems yesterday before President Hoover's commission on law observance and enforcement.

Holding its second meeting, the commission called a number of government officials to present their views on the task of pursuing the nationwide investigation of law enforcement problems. The names of the other officials were not disclosed.

While the session was behind closed doors, Mr. Mellon was understood to have mainly presented his views on the enforcement of the prohibition and narcotic laws which come under the jurisdiction of the treasury department.

The commission also considered the formulation of its policies for the investigation and a program which probably will call for public hearings in various large cities of the country on crime and law enforcement conditions.

Sixty-eight years of continuous membership of the Masonic Lodge is the record of Marcus L. Moore, 31-year-old Civil War veteran of Rosburg, Ore.

Count Held as Rum-Ring Agent

Charged With Being European Agent of An International Rum-Ring—Two Other Alleged Leaders Arrested in Raid.

New York, June 7 (AP).—Count Francis De Maessene De Polignac, said to be of the old French nobility, was arrested by undercover prohibition agents today and charged with being the European agent of an international rum-ring.

Seven cases of liquor were seized in the count's suite at the Savoy Plaza.

The count's arrest occurred in a general roundup of 37 men who are charged with conspiracy to violate the prohibition act in connection with the activities of the alleged ring.

William J. Calhoun, in charge of the 40 agents making the roundup, said papers relating to activities of the ring were found in Count De Polignac's suite.

Another raid conducted on the "headquarters" of the ring resulted in the arrest of two other alleged leaders, William Bartels and Philip D. Gowen.

Bartels and Gowen occupied offices at 200 Fifth avenue under the firm name of the "Go-Bart Co., Exporters and Importers." Two other men arrested in the offices were William S. Flynn and George Heath.

Meanwhile other agents entered a warehouse of J. M. Dooley and Son at 445 12th street, Brooklyn, seized two truck loads of liquor and arrested Dooley, his brother, William, and William's two sons, John and James.

Chris Luteman, head of the Interman Trucking Company, alleged to be the concern which made the ring's deliveries, also was arrested.

John B. Holby, a warehouseman; Samuel F. Horn who conducted a "fur" store at 55 West 42nd street; in which no furs were found, and Robert Nelson of Brooklyn, were others taken into custody. The agents allege Nelson's house was used as a storing place for small quantities of liquor.

More doctors

more business men

buy Buicks than any other fine car

Professional men know automobiles. Their very standing in their communities demands that they drive cars of outstanding merit and reliability. It is significant therefore that more doctors—more lawyers—more business men the country over buy Buicks than any other fine car!

You will find these discerning owners agreed that Buick combines the maximum of tasteful luxury and distinction... and, in addition, a margin of clear-cut leadership in power, getaway, swiftness and stamina so remarkable as to single out Buick as the great performing automobile of the day!

As a result of this leadership—in traffic—on hills—on the highway—Buick wins more than twice as many buyers as any other car priced above $1200 and pleases them so thoroughly that Buick owners alone purchase more Buicks than the total production of any other quality car.

A Paramount Picture

Mary Brian

Mary Brian created the role of "Wendy" in "Peter Pan." She is favorably known to the millions of "movie" theater patrons and is regarded as one of the foremost in her line of work. She was born and educated in Dallas, Texas. She is clever in portrait and water color painting. Winning of a newspaper personality contest conveyed her to the screen when she was given the part of "Wendy," which marked her immediate triumph in pictures. This is from one of her latest photos.

THE WHY OF SUPERSTITIONS
 By H. IRVING KING

FALLING PICTURES

A RATHER common superstition is that the falling of a portrait from the wall where it is hanging portends a death in the family. Some even go so far as to regard as unlucky the accidental dropping of a photograph of a friend or relation. This is really traceable to the connection which the primitive mind established between the symbol and what it represented, an idea which found one phase of its expression in the belief of an intimate connection between a person and his image! If a symbol of one of the gods acquired a reverence and half-worship from its close connection with the immortal it represented, was it not natural to suppose that a more or less intimate connection existed between a person and his "counterfeit presentment"? It was this idea that caused the necromancers of the Middle Ages to "get square" with the enemies of themselves or their patrons by making a rag doll to represent the aforesaid enemy and sticking it full of pins, or a wax doll and letting it melt before a fire, thereby claiming to cause, by sympathetic magic, illness, perhaps death, to the victim. The ideas of our cave-man ancestors and our medieval forbears lingering deep in our "unconscious" ego, cause some of us to establish, therefore, a close connection between a person and his portrait. Now when that portrait falls we get that form of symbolism which causes one to suggest another. The picture falls from its place: the original falls from his place—die. Strictly it ought to be that way but, perhaps, the original of the portrait is already dead and, being broadminded persons and not a bit superstitious, we say, "Well, if not that person, another; somebody we know; some member of the family, probably, is indicated. It's a bad sign, anyway."

SMILES
 GABBY GERTIE

"A man's expression is often influenced by his wait and sight."

First Map of World

Anaximander of Miletus (Sixth century) is credited with the first attempt to draw a map of the then-known world. Gerhard Kramer, generally known as Mercator, invented the first developed projection and published a map of the world in 1569.

Theatrical "Snow"

Few who slither through a "slip" on the movie-picture screen know that the "snow" is composed of driven along by blowers. A mill in Chicago and another in Omaha make this "snow" out of white corn. This corn is first made into pearly hominy, then flaked, cooked and finally baked, when it is ready to be a "snowstorm." Breakfast cereals are made the same way except that malt and sugar are added, which gives them the brownish color. Flakes used in movie blizzards weigh only five ounces to the gallon. After a scene they may be swept up and used again.

"Standing Pat"

Pat is an adjective, probably from the French "pat," meaning that which suits the purpose of the occasion or meeting exactly suitable. The expression is used in poker to refer to a hand so satisfactory that its holder does not care to exercise the privilege of discarding and drawing cards. Hence the expression "stand pat." This came to mean opposition to a change of any kind, especially in United States politics. The phrase in this sense was first used to express the attitude of leaders of the Republican party by Senator Hanna in 1902.

Henspecked Men

When a man is henspecked, he generally indicates in his conversation that other men should be; he is like the fabled fox which, losing his tail in a trap, goes about declaring it is a new style other foxes should adopt, although actually keenly realizing the loss of his own tail. . . . There is actually no more reason why a man should be too much ruled by women than that he should be too much ruled by agents or politicians.—E. W. Howe's Monthly.

Famous Old Canal

The original canal connecting St. Marys falls and rapids was a crude affair made by trappers and traders. In 1837-38 to connect with the North-west country in order to permit them to compete in the transportation of furs with the Hudson's Bay company. This work was practically destroyed by United States troops in 1814 during the war with Great Britain, and in 1833 a system of canals was begun by the state of Michigan within the United States borders to connect Lakes Superior and Huron. This cost $1,000,000 and had two locks. It was enlarged in 1870 in cooperation with the United States government, and in 1882 Michigan relinquished control to the federal government.

Woodstock Art Colony Flourishes

Woodstock, June 7 (Special to The Freeman).—With the advent of June there are a great many people coming back again to their summer homes at the art colony; newcomers are also entering the mountain village for the season, and rentals and real estate sales are more brisk than at any other time of the year.

George A. Neher has made a recent sale of the Theron Lasher farmstead, with buildings, at Lake Hill, to G. C. Haines of Flushing, L. I. The new owner is remodeling the place and will make it his home in the future. Another newcomer, now a land owner in Woodstock, is George H. Green of Yonkers, N. Y.

David Keason, president of the Woodstock Country Club, has announced that the new nine-hole golf course will be ready for use around June 25. The club had a formal opening, with about 100 guests at a dinner on May 20.

Among recent notables who visited Woodstock, and who plan longer residence there are Archibaldo, sculptor; Mme. Mary Desta, author, registered at Twin Gables; and Charles Starke, Marquette Show manager for Tony Sarr.

Mrs. Bertha Kraus has been in Woodstock this month making plans to sail for Europe for July and August.

Jan Mason, well-known Hollywood movie actor, will spend the summer months in Woodstock. Mr. Mason's daughter has been living at Bearsville for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Roblou have returned to Woodstock for the summer. Mr. Roblou is known to radio audiences for his Scotch songs and monologues.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Spelcher have returned from a trip to Europe and are back at their Rock City home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford N. Page have rented the Hinton cottage for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hatty have returned to their Bearsville summer home after spending the winter months in Charleston, S. C.

Other Woodstockers back from European sojourns are Mr. and Mrs. Neil Ives and daughter. They spent part of the winter in southern France.

Among new residents in Woodstock who represent the writers' profession in the colony are Clara G. Stillman, Mrs. Grell Gjorbad and Elizabeth Bergen White.

Another Oriental artist who will make Woodstock his summer home this season is Y. Kuniyoshi, who with his wife has rented the Mrs. C. Lovelace house.

D. A. Reidy has returned to his home on Montoma mountain after spending the winter months in New York city.

Margaret Sperry, writer, is planning to spend the summer months at the Yadoo colony at Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

Otto Bierhals, artist, has purchased a tract of land on the village road near the village entrance, and has commenced building a studio for his use.

Carl Wuermmer has rented the J. P. McEvoy cottage for the season.

J. P. McEvoy, playwright, was heard over the radio by Woodstock friends this week, introducing a skit given from his successful play, "The Potters."

SHOKAN.

Shokan, June 6.—A branch water pipe line has been laid by the state road contractors from the corner to the distributing plant near the railroad viaduct on Middle Boulevard. Work on the several bridges is rapidly nearing completion, and work on the concrete paving job is expected to commence within a short time.

Robert Bloom of Newburgh called on friends here Saturday while enroute to his home from a fishing trip at Cold Brook. "Bob" had several big trout, one of them measuring 18 inches in length, which he lured from the Esopus with a fly.

Additional arrivals during the past few days have increased the number of regular summer visitors here to almost normal. Mrs. Oscar Ganter came up with her son, Emmett, the latter returning to his work as dancing instructor at the Murray studios. Members of the Heights colony who have arrived include Mrs. Sydney Vanderbilt and Mrs. Robert Peck. Mrs. Dennis Lynch has not yet left the city, though one of her children came up with the Pecks and is staying there for the time being.

Still others occupying their bungalows are the Neal, Joyce, Gearson and Guthrie families, while William B. Grossman has been at his boarding house for several weeks. At Ashokan Heights the summer homes of Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Phillip Chase and Robert F. Story have been opened for the season.

Judge David L. Windrum is endeavoring to get a traffic signal installed at the corner. It is hoped by the judge and other proponents of the plan that the idea will be favorably acted upon soon. In order that the necessary wiring can be installed before the concrete paving is put down. The corner is said to be one of the busiest intersections in this part of the state. At least one fatal accident has taken place here and several more have been narrowly avoided.

D. L. Windrum entertained over the week end Mr. and Mrs. Will Windrum and Miss Fannie Brice of New York. Mr. Windrum is Judge Windrum's nephew, and Miss Brice is his cousin.

John Whalen, Jr., the bright young son of John Whalen of the board of water, supply maintenance record here, has a perfect attendance record at the Brown school for the current school year. Miss Edith O'Connor is teacher of the Browns' grammar school which is now nearing the close of a very successful term.

Recent visitors to town included Mr. and Mrs. Eben F. Buswell of Kingston, Judge and Mrs. Buswell, who resided in Shokan for several years during the building of the reservoir, are now living on Elmendorf street, where they have built a beautiful home. Although the judge, as a Spanish War veteran, took part in the Memorial Day parade in Kings-

Milton Berlin of Glenford is employed at Winchell's store. Lyle Wager, who has recovered from an attack of measles, is also on the job at the store. Lester Alexander is driving the big truck for the Winchells.

Some of the numerous fishermen who abound in these parts report having had very good success with minnows as bait for pickerel and trout. Nearly every day some sportsmen stop with a brace or more of big fellows, which, of course, he is glad to exhibit to all who care to take a look.

On Sunday, June 7, 1882, a second sermon was preached on the funeral of Barnett Bishop, who was killed at the battle of Fredericksburg in Virginia. On the preceding Sunday afternoon a sermon had been preached for the dead soldier in the Tongore Methodist Church by the Rev. J. Winchell. Barnett Bishop was one of the men from this section who met death on that icy December day in '62, when Burnside buried his Union army against the "stone wall" of Lee's men, an engagement which cost the northern forces a total of 12,300 men killed, wounded or missing.

Jacob V. Merrilow, night jailer at the Ulster county jail and a former supervisor of Olive, called on friends in this section last Saturday.

Ira Walters of New York city returned home Monday after spending a few days at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Elmendorf. Mr. Walters, who is a specialist in high priced electrical fixtures, has been coming to Shokan for a number of years.

Mrs. Isabel Lopez is again at the Nadal homestead, formerly the John Weeks place, on the heights.

Mrs. Craver and sons of Kingston have taken up their summer residence in one of the Winchell bungalows.

Mr. and Mrs. Baylis of Tonawanda spent the week end at the home of Mrs. Margaret Raftery.

Harvey Silkworth has gone to Cambridge, N. Y., where his son Homer, is ill in the Mary McEllan Memorial Hospital. Mr. Silkworth plans to remain upstate for an indefinite period and may stay there permanently.

Liquor Conditions In Canada and United States

This article is the start of a series of questions by Mrs. Sinclair Lewis on the Canadian liquor situation.

By MRS. SINCLAIR LEWIS
(Formerly Dorothy Thompson)
Copyright, 1929, by N. Y. Evening Post, Inc.

When a United States citizen buys a bottle of imported Scotch, Canadian, or French brandy or fancy liquor under the label of one of the Canadian liquor commissions, or boards, what he is really purchasing is good will. Faith in the Canadian product—this is Canada's chief export still in the liquor line.

The Quebec Liquor Commission occupies what was once a large prison. It is now even larger; a vast new wing has been added. Its cellars, when one walks through, seem to cover acres; there are vast concrete rooms, cool, damp, arid, winy, where thousands of barrels of native port and sherry are stored, ready to be bottled in gallon jugs and retailed for $2 a gallon. There are miles of shelves, upon which dusty bottles of bordeaux and burgundies, red and white, lie in neat pyramids, their labels advertising France's best finest vineyards.

Another vast cellar is filled with the pungent aromatic odor of fusil oils evaporating from rum and whiskey barrels—the fusil oils which United States drinkers allow to evaporate from their own systems. There are thousands of oaken casks of cognac, distinguishable by their wooden, wicker-bound hoops, lying side by side with great rum barrels of elmwood, bound in steel, and old oak barrels, steel-hooped, containing Scotch, imported as proof spirits, later to be diluted and bottled by the Liquor Commission. There is even a cellar in which repose the last of some ancient United States bourbon of pre-prohibition days.

Showroom For Wares
Upstairs, in showrooms with neat floors of waxed linoleum and rows of glass cabinets, all the wares of the commission are displayed. There are fat and twisted bottles of fine liquors, slender hock bottles, sturdy burgundy bottles, with their neat black labels; square cointreau bottles, dark amber colored. A vast amount of expert selection, the products of the world's vineyards and distilleries—there are even some Chinese liquors upon the shelves—and millions of dollars of investment are represented in these rooms and cellars.

And on a shelf downstairs, in a room just off the chemical laboratory, stands and exhibit gathered by the Quebec Liquor Commission during seven years of operation. It consists of fake copies of every one of the commission's wares—duplicates of every variety of imported Scotch, French liquor, brandy, Canadian rye. Not a single brand ever put out by the Quebec Liquor Commission is lacking.

Labels Almost Perfect
In each of these bottles, with slight variations, is a combination of alcohol, malt (for flavoring), creosote, caramel, and, if a liquor, essence of peppermint, anise, or what have you. A little glycerine and a dash of tannin are also present. It may comfort some readers to know that in seven years of tests methyl alcohol has been discovered only five or six times. The labels on these bottles defy detection, except by expert eyes with magnifying glasses and long experience. They would deceive any ordinary buyer in the world. Even the Liquor Commission wrappers, the thin, Japanese-like paper, with red and blue threads in it, has been duplicated, but less easily and less often than the bottles and the labels. American buyers who think they are getting Quebec stores had better demand this outer wrapping. It is some slight protection.

Here are John Dewar and Sons, Special Liquor Scotch—your New York bootlegger will ask $10 or $12 for it; here are John Haig, Markinch, Sandy MacDonald, Old Mull, Andrew Usher, Green Stripe, Johnny Walker, Black and Red—all superb tributes to the lithographer's art. All counterfeiters.

The faking of Canadian liquors is so common the Quebec Liquor Commission guards its labels and wrappers more heavily than it does the wares themselves. Heavy steel netting, fastened with padlocks, surrounds the store of red and blue thread wrappers.

Yes, even before it is cut in some Long Island still and re-bottled in some imitation wrappings, the liquor which comes from Canada may be fake. The chance of the United States drinker to get a product which is what it repurposes to be is small indeed!

And here is another point where the situation in the United States touches the one in Canada.

Bootlegging International
Certainly not all of the Canadian fake liquor—probably far less than half of it—comes to the United States. The private still flourishes half-heartedly in Canada as a hang-over from prohibition days, and because hard liquor is expensive. The poor man cannot afford it. But certainly some of it comes to us. The bootlegging business is an international organization. The Canadian moonshiner is acquainted with American rum-runners. They offer him one market for his goods. He offers them a chance to make a vastly greater profit. A Canadian moonshiner in the city of Quebec offered me, for instance, Red Label Johnny Walker, bottles and labels identical with those of the Liquor Commission's product, which retails at $4.80 per quart, for $16 a case!

"It's pure," he said, "won't hurt you a bit; got it from St. Pierre."

As a matter of fact he got it right out of his own still, which is situated in the center of the city and operating openly. It was the well-known Canadian "hand-brand," and not rea disguised warehouse on the Canadian side of the border. A certain man is one of the warehousemen. The stuff is unloaded there and is then transported in a farmer's wagon under a load of hay, perhaps, to a point on the other side of the border, where it is picked up again. But this is almost always done with the connivance of the police. Two thousand dollars in bribes at the border for $25,000 worth of booze is about the ratio.

The seventh article of the series by Mrs. Lewis will appear tomorrow.

Konchina Meets "Red" Moshier at Armory Tonight

The main 10 round bout at the armory tonight promises to be an interesting affair, because Jack "Red" Moshier of Newburgh is fighting on making a successful comeback to the ring in the tilt against Frankie Konchina, Mayo artist of Fort Jay, who is the terror of all army military artists in his division.

Konchina is one of the sturdiest fighters that does a turn in the National Guard ring and in picking him to meet Moshier, who has been out of the roped arena for some time, Matchmaker Jimmy Ambrose really did no favor to the Newburgh pugilist. However, Moshier has been training hard for the battle and promises to give Konchina a real fight tonight.

Local fans favor Konchina to take Moshier's measure, but forecasts do not always turn out as forecasts would have them and Moshier has upset the dopesters on previous occasions. After being beaten by Charlie Johnson, who at the time was one of the strongest men in the guard, "Red" turned the tables in a decisive manner in a bout that followed.

The semi-final of eight rounds, which will be put on by Mickey McVeigh of Newburgh, and Charlie Sitters of New York promises plenty of action. Sitters is waiting to take McVeigh over, while the Newburgher is just as anxious to score a victory against the eager New York boy.

Although Sitters has never fought here before, his reputation is said to be of high caliber. Of course McVeigh needs no introduction to local fans owing to the fine fight he put up here last week against Joe Mareno of New York.

Supporting bouts will be as follows: Kid Buckman, Kingston, vs. Bill Schafer, Saugerties, six rounds; Ray Halverson, Newburgh, vs. Eddie Ziegler, New York, six rounds; Roy Van Buren, Kingston, vs. Tony Grosso, Newburgh.

Phrases Often Misapplied

Probably the majority of people who use the phrase "of that ilk" are ignorant of the real meaning of "ilk." It does not properly mean kind, sex, family or race, as often supposed. "Ilk" is from the Anglo-Saxon "ilc" and means identical or same. In Scotch "of that ilk" denotes that a person's surname is the same as the name of his estate. "Knockwinnock of that ilk" means simply "Knockwinnock of that ilk," the name of proprietor and property being identical. The improper usage of "ilk" to mean kind or sort probably originated as a joke and has been perpetuated through ignorance of the true meaning.—Exchange.

West New York Red Sox to Play Pan-Ams Sunday

Sunday at 3 p. m. on the Saenger, the road diamond one of the fastest and most interesting baseball games ever played here is expected to be the outcome of the Pan-Am vs. West New York Red Sox meeting. Both teams will send the strongest men on their roster to the field.

The Sox lineup sent by Manager W. Ward to the Pan-Am mentor promises that the oilmen will have to fight hard for it contains the names of players who have been here and performed in a very creditable manner.

However strong the West New Yorkers may prove their caliber will not be too high for the Pan-Ams, say ardent followers of the local boys. The brand of ball being played by the oilmen puts them in a class with some of the best semi-pro clubs it is contended.

The lineup for Sunday's game is as follows:

Pan-Ams	Pos.	West N. Y.
Sickler	ss.	C. Gabriel
Jackson	2b.	Condon
Lay	1b.	Neaf
Black	1b.	H. Keegan
Cragan	2b.	Doyle
Tierney	cf.	Jardina
Merritt	rf.	Kull
Hoffman	c.	Hafermann
Carpenter	p.	Naimo

Reserve hurlers for the West New York Red Sox will be Karkenic and Smith, while the Pan-Ams will have Gueh to send to the mound if necessary. McGuire will be ready to catch for the oilmen in place of Hoffman if called upon.

ESTATE OF KILLER TO EXPIATE CRIME

(By The Associated Press)

Detroit—Billy Petrolle, Fargo, N. D., outpointed Ray Miller, Chicago (10).

Wisconsin Orphans to Receive Most of $40,000.

Milwaukee.—Society is to be partially repaid for a murder committed more than fifty years ago by Fred Borchert, who died in seclusion recently in his paint shop here at the age of eighty-one. More than $40,000 of the $40,000 estate which Borchert had accumulated since his parole from Waukon prison 30 years ago will be turned into the fund of the Milwaukee county orphan's board and used for the support of the orphan asylums of the county.

Borchert, who opened his paint shop shortly after being paroled from prison, left no will and no relatives. A petition was filed in the county court by Neale B. Neelen, public administrator, asking that he be appointed administrator of the estate.

The orphan's board fund, which is unique in the United States, was created 58 years ago as a means of disposing of estates of persons dying intestate and leaving no relatives.

The fund at present amounts to $120,000. This is kept in trust and the income is spent for the upkeep of orphan asylums.

Soon after he was imprisoned Borchert repented. He became a model prisoner, and in 1890 was freed on the promise he would attempt to redeem himself. He opened his paint store and industriously pursued his trade as a painter and paperhanger. He did his own cooking, made his own bed on rare occasions and boarded his money.

The trust fund which will receive the Borchert estate is administered without charge by the 19 judges of the county's Courts of Record. The existing fund has come from 300 probated estates. Seven orphan asylums benefit.

Gasco's Defeat K. & M. Schillings In Fast Contest

A fast losing attack, which netted five runs, gave the Gasco's a victory over the K. & M. Schillings. Thursday evening in the fastest game played on the Atlantic Field this season. The final score was 7-3. Jimmy Merritt was in the box during the attack, after which he steadied and held his own.

Hoffman, Lynch and Sickler were the ones to make life most miserable for Merritt, each connecting for two runs apiece off his delivery. Merritt was opposed on the mound by Mike Van Aken.

Outside of a little wildness Van Aken pitched a good game, limiting his hits to six, none of which came after the third inning. Both pitchers had the batters missing, Merritt fanning ten and Van Aken eight.

Hoffman opened the game with a single to left field. Quinn fanned but Lynch connected for another single and Bob Sickler doubled to center field to score Hoffman and Lynch.

Ken Williams muffed Wood's fly in left field and Raichle hit safely to right, scoring Sickler and Wood. Raichle stole second and scored on an infield out, catching the K. & M. Schillings players asleep in the infield.

Banyo's double and Ditzik's single manufactured a run for the K. & M. Schillings in their half of the first. In the third they threatened to tie the score.

Komosa started with a single, Malnes was given a walk and Williams hit for two bases, scoring both runners. Blass singled and Williams was held at third. On an attempt double steal Williams was caught in the box and put out.

Connelly got the K. & M. Schillings' last hit in the third. He didn't advance far, being smothered in a fast double play.

Short's single, a stolen base and Hoffman's single gave the Gasco's another run in the fourth inning.

The Gasco's last run came in the sixth on an error by Malnes of Short's grounder and Williams' error of Hoffman's fly.

SIDELINERS.

When Sickler hit his double in the first inning it marked his thirteenth consecutive safety. His streak was broken the next time at bat by forcing out Lynch at second.

Merritt retired the side by way of the strikeout route in the second and Van Aken duplicated the feat in the last inning.

Both teams were unsuccessful in attempting double steals. Williams was caught in the second inning and Lynch in the last.

Miss Alice B. Van Doren arrived New York from India at the beginning of this month. She is to direct one of the classes at the Reformed Church Young People's Conference at Stony Brook, Long Island, on August 19 to 27. Miss Van Doren has been a member of the Reformed Church for more than 25 years and has been very prominent in the work of the church. Through her efforts and those of her associates in the work of the church, a hospital developed into the Reformed Memorial High School at Stony Brook, an institution in which the Reformed Church has just pride. Recently Miss Van Doren has been called to become one of the Secretaries of the National Christian Council of India, Burma and Ceylon. Conferences preliminary to the one in August have been held in Albany, Macleod, Jersey City, Brooklyn, New York and Astoria and interest is growing among the young people of the Metropolitan Area.

Stony Brook combines many of the advantages which have been available heretofore only at more distant points, such as Northfield and Silver Bay. Situated on the North Shore of Long Island, about fifty miles from New York City, it is readily accessible to a large group of the "Dutch" churches. Its location offers facilities for all kinds of vacation sports, so that there will be ample opportunity for recreation each day following the morning study periods.

Miss Van Doren is a daughter of the late Rev. J. Howard Van Doren who for several years was pastor of the Reformed Church at Ulster Park.

English Village Fair Huge Success

The first afternoon and evening of the English Village Fair held on Thursday at 265 Albany Avenue, on the grounds surrounding Mrs. Williams Carter's handsome residence, was a huge success in every way, as was enthusiastically testified to by the throngs of people in attendance.

The picture presented by the colorful booths, the quaint cottages, the cafe, the tables with gaily colored parasols shading them, the quaint and pretty costumes of the women and girls and especially the vivid coloring of the English huntmen in scarlet coats, white breeches and black caps, in the beautiful setting of the charming grounds backed by a splendid view of the Catskills, and especially the large numbers of children who had the happiest time ever and were a picture in themselves, all held the spectators quite spellbound.

Everybody having anything to sell was busy indeed, whether at the general store, fortune telling tent, toy shop, gift shop, food and creamery, antique booth, lemonade booth, hot dog stand, cigar and cigarette booth or food shop. Besides all of the other joys for the youngsters, there was pony riding.

One of the cleverest performances seen in some time was that of Mrs. Jarley's Wax Works, given by the choir boys who also presented "famous portraits." Others of the choir boys had charge of the popular crockery-smashing contest and the nail driving contest, both largely patronized.

There were so many people in attendance at the fair that there was also a large audience continually watching Fred Van Deusen giving his magic performance.

Early in the evening, the Band of the Newburgh Academy, Robert Williams, conductor, gave a fine program and the ladies won many complimentary comments on all sides for the excellence of their playing, which was considerably above the average amateur performance.

There was dancing out of doors to excellent music, with the fantastic lights peering from trees and booths, and it was enjoyed to the limit.

All of these attractions together with another cafeteria supper just as delicious as that Thursday night await those who attend the fair this afternoon and evening.

Y's Men's Club Enjoy Dance

The Kingston Y's Men's Club held a very enjoyable meeting Tuesday evening in the "Y" with President Merion McLoughlin presiding.

Reports from the members who visited the Nyack Y's Men's Club last week showed that the trip was thoroughly enjoyed. The Kingston fellows had the honor of winning the Nyack basketball team 43 to 32 and also won by a good margin at bowling. The men are looking forward to the time when the Nyack club will return the visit which they promise to do in the very near future.

Earl S. Leeman was the guest of "Pop" Hinds and was given the usual Y's Men's welcome.

James Scott had charge of the evening's entertainment and said that he had not provided a very lengthy program in view of the fact that the men were anxious to get out to the Lodge and had brought his young son, Jimmy, who would entertain with a piano solo. James, Jr., carefully showed his skill at the piano with "April Showers" and was forced to respond with "Mazurka" as an encore. The fellows enjoyed having Jimmy with them and expressed the hope that when he grew up he would become a Y's Man like his dad.

The meal as usual was splendid as prepared by the Misses Davenport and served by the Misses Viola Porter, Alma Quimby and Doris Willmott.

After the meeting the men took their wives, sweethearts and friends to their Charles Ramsey Lodge at Lake Glenier, where they enjoyed dancing to the strains of Paul Zucca's orchestra. The Lodge was very prettily decorated for the occasion and the affair was a big success in every particular. Stanley Winne and his able committee were heartily congratulated.

The entertainment committee for next week will be George Hendrickson, Charles Ramsey and Dr. Julian I. Gifford. The president announced that he would resume his ten minute program of high class vaudeville features next week.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

(By The Associated Press)

Atlantic City, N. J.—A billionaire is in debt to the tune of two cents. Henry Ford had to borrow to buy a Thomas A. Edison commemorative stamp. He came all the way to make a speech at the National Electric Light Convention, which is paying special tribute to Edison in connection with the golden jubilee of incandescent light. The speech was 27 words long: "We build at Dearborn 8,000 complete electric light plants every day. This being an electrical meeting, I thought I'd like to tell you that. Thank You."

New York—Mrs. Dorothy Caruso, widow of the tenor, is in business. She is in personal charge of a studio in her name which makes quick sound records of anything a customer desires, from a greeting to a sales letter.

New Brunswick, N. J.—A scholar is going into big league baseball. Michael de Muccio, undefeated pitcher of Rutgers University, is a member of Phi Beta Kappa. This season he has a no-hit game to his credit and an astonishing number of strikeouts. Three big clubs have been sizing him up.

New York—Joie Ray is after new laurels. Miller and marathoner, he is now entered in a six-day roller skating race.

North Sydney, N. S.—Having caught a cod containing a diamond bracelet, Homer LeBlanc of Adler Point, humble fisherman, has visions of becoming a magnate, with a schooner of his own and everything. He has refused an offer of $75 for the bracelet, hoping it is one dropped overboard by the passenger of an ocean liner and worth thousands.

New York—The well-dressed gentleman, in the opinion of Adolphe Menjou, should have a dozen hats, at the very least, and England has it all over the U. S. A. as the land of well-hatted men.

Ottawa—Senator W. A. Griesbach is aroused. He understands that Donald S. MacMillan proposes to give Yankee names to Baffin land areas. On the floor of the Senate he made a protest. The government promised to look into the matter.

New York—Mrs. Mary Pierce, only woman on the Graf Zeppelin's recent attempt to fly to this country, plans to visit Russia on a tour conducted by the American-Russian Chamber of Commerce. Her husband, who objected to her going, will accompany her.

New York—What ho! Could it be that the defeat of the pipe-smoking Stanley Baldwin's government caused it? Mr. Dawes arrived here smoking on the way to be ambassador to the Court of St. James. But it was not a pipe. It was a big black cigar.

Goes With Ice Company.

Herbert Van Aken, who has been serving the public in Port Ewen and Ulster Park the past two years with manufactured ice, has now become assistant engineer at the plant. Jad Buaton, the natural ice man, has been engaged to take Mr. Van Aken's place.

A HEAVY MEAL ACUTE INDIGESTION SUDDEN DEATH

Thousands of people think they have Heart Trouble and live in constant fear of a sudden end, when, as a matter of fact, their trouble simply is caused by an excess of acid in the stomach.

When the stomach is full of acid and the slightest bit of food sets up a ferment, it causes bloating and gas, the stomach distends and crowds the heart and pulmonary arteries of the chest, and prevents the heart from pumping the blood properly. This causes indigestion, a heavy meal, a slight discomfort and a little sleepless night, but it is not heart trouble.

You can prove this in three minutes. From any good drugstore obtain some Bismarck Tablets, either powder or tablet form and take a little in water after your next meal. Watch results. If you have symptoms you fear full to appear, you have found your real trouble—stomach hyperacidity—and this condition Bismarck Tablets is guaranteed to stop. There is nothing better, safer, surer for acid-caused digestive troubles, and a simple trial proves the value. Try it.

Market for Fruits And Vegetables

New York, June 7 (AP).—(State Department of Agriculture and Markets)—Long Island strawberries appeared on the New York city wholesale market today for the first time this season. The fruit was excellent in quality and changed hands readily at 20-25 cents a quart basket. The tone of the market as a whole was firm, particularly on good quality large berries. Consignments from the lower sections of the Hudson valley brought 16-20 cents. New Jersey shipments ranged from 16-25c.

The demand for green peas was insufficient to absorb today's offerings and buyers had everything their own way. Bushel hampers from New Jersey jobbed out at 75 cents to $1.50, and from California at $1.00-$2.25.

California apricots and plums have begun to arrive in carlots. The plums were of the Beauty variety and sold at auction at $3.55 to $5.37 a box. The apricots realized $4.25 a lug.

Last year New York city received from California 627 carloads of plums and 49 of apricots.

String beans were in plentiful supply again today from Virginia and North Carolina. The undertone of the market was weaker and trading was generally slow. Five-peck hampers of green flat beans peddled out at 25c-$2.50, principally $1.25-$2.00. Green round beans brought 75c-$2.00 and wax 50c-$3.00.

The market on cabbage closed decidedly weak. Supplies were liberal, principally from the Norfolk section of Virginia. The demand was very slow. Early business on Wakefield packed in one and one-half bushel hampers was transacted at chiefly $1.00. At the close the prevailing price was 50-75 cents.

Red raspberries continued in limited receipt. The demand was fairly active. Price changes were small and unimportant in a steady market. Pint baskets wholesaled at 30-35 cents. New Jersey, Maryland and Delaware were the chief sources of supply.

South Carolina cucumbers were in generous supply. A large volume, however, were unattractive in quality and values therefore ranged widely. Sales on the fancy pack were reported at 75c-$2.00 per bushel hamper. The choice pack brought 50c-$1.25. Pickles packed in similar containers commanded $1.25-$2.00.

With the aid of both New Paltz and Highland fire companies the large cooler and other buildings were saved. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Pass Expert Fish Catcher

Cats, in their primitive state, are born hunters and fishers and on tombs of ancient Egypt appeared representations of cats accompanying their masters on fowling expeditions. One of the most interesting accounts of cats as fishers, found in the Plymouth Journal, relates: "There is now at the battery, on Devil's point, a cat which is an expert catcher of the fluky tribe, being in the constant habit of diving into the sea and bringing up the fish in her mouth and depositing it in the guardroom for the use of the sailors. She is now seven years old and has long been a useful caterer."—Detroit News.

Writers, Please Note

Not so long ago bottles of gum issued by the British stationery office bore the following instruction:

"In ordinary use the best and most nearly immediate result is secured by using only such an amount of gum as will just uniformly moisten the surface without leaving any obvious excess to delay drying, the condition to be aimed at being that of a gummed postage-stamp just moistened as ordinarily applied to a letter."

Now some sensible economist, callously indifferent to fine writing, has replaced this piece of unexampled prose with the terse paraphrase, "Apply thinly."

Child Behavior Merely

Reflection of Parents' There is no mystery about children. They are puzzling, often, but they are never incomprehensible. At least, they are not incomprehensible to old folks and I think they need not be to parents.

Fathers and mothers are themselves the keys to their offspring. A disorderly father should be able to understand why his image will not put away his toys. A quick-tempered mother should not have to call a doctor for her daughter's tantrums; he can only advise self-control—in the mother.

The mystery is about parents, young parents, busy with their own affairs, too preoccupied with their future to think of the present of their children and to recall how it was with them when they were young.

"Run away, now, and play. Papa is reading his newspaper."

Parents say that, not grandparents. Grandparents do not consider the news so important as parents do. Grandpa has time and memories, some self-knowledge, some sense of proportion. —Lincoln Steffens in the North American Review.

Little Journeys in Americana

By LESTER B. COLBY

Quantrell, the Guerrilla
WILLIAM C. QUANTRELL, alias Charley Hart, alias El Hart, outlaw and guerrilla, appears to have been one of the world's greatest monsters. Some writers have tried to make a hero out of him. But the evidence against him is beyond question.

Born in Canal Dover, Maryland, in 1837, he started to wander when twenty years old. After a brief visit in Ohio we find him in Mendota, Ill. There he is discovered one day standing over a dead man with a smoking revolver in his hand. He claims the man tried to hold him up. Murder is suspected, but nothing comes of it.

After a brief time around Paola, Kan., he goes West across the plains as a mulcteer with a wagon train. He signs under the name of Charley Hart, because he has left Paola under suspicion of theft, robbery and other crimes. He has a sensational career in Utah as a gambler—big stakes. A few months later he is in Lawrence, Kan.

Here his criminal career gets impetus. The border wars are on. Kansas is a free state; Missouri, slave. Clans arise. Guerrilla warfare commences. Those on the Missouri side are called bushwhackers or Jaywalkers. Those on the Kansas side, red legs. The Civil war is not on yet.

Quantrell, in the beginning, tries to run with both packs. He lures slaves out of Missouri and takes them back to get rewards. He mixes horse stealing and highway robbery with murder. Finally he ends up in jail and the rope is all but around his neck. The charges come from Lawrence, Kan.

He escapes and thrives for a time by betraying his associates; luring them into ambush and death. Civil war comes on. The North outlaws him. He goes to Richmond seeking a colonelcy. But the South refuses to accept him.

Only one course is open to him. He is outlawed by the North so he must fight the North. He gathers together his guerrillas. They wear a semi-uniform; a strange, picturesque guerrilla shirt. Each man carries from two to six revolvers. They steal horses and become the finest band of fighting horsemen in the world.

Quantrell has many hates but one bigger than all the rest. It is his hate for Lawrence, Kan., scene of many of his crimes—including murders. He sets out for Lawrence.

The start is made with 204 of his own men. On the way he picks up Holt's Confederate command; 104 more. Fifty men meet him at Grand river. That makes 448. Probably a few stragglers join the enterprise; more than 450 in all.

They ride into Lawrence. Quantrell has made a list of men marked for death. It contains the name of every man against whom he holds a grudge. And he is liberal with his hate. At dawn on August 20, 1863, Quantrell rides into Lawrence. He gives one order. It is "Kill, Kill, Kill."

Seldom in the history of the world has there been anything so terrible as the Lawrence massacre. Between dawn and nine o'clock more than one hundred fifty men and boys are murdered. Eighty women, wives, at daybreak, are made widows; two hundred fifty children orphaned in four hours. Many homes are burned. Stores and hotels become ashes. Property loss is $2,000,000.

Seeing the Confederacy falling, Quantrell is taken with fear. To surrender is sure death. So he flees to Kentucky with a handful of followers. Lee's surrender finds him a fugitive, always running away from his pursuers.

Raiding and stealing, he is living off of Kentucky. Finally the son of a southern family, Capt. Edwin Terrill, only nineteen years old, organizes a company of guerrillas—to fight as he fights—and starts after him. They strike him near Bloomfield, Ky.

The battle is fast, furious, decisive. Quantrell falls with a bullet through his back and his trigger finger shot off. He is paralyzed; for the bullet has hit his spine. That is on May 10, 1865. He dies on June 6, in the Military Prison hospital, Louisville.

Burial is made in an unmarked grave. Twenty-three years later, in 1888, a historian comes, seeking the spot where Quantrell lies. An attaché takes him to a door and points his finger, saying: "It's out there—where we throw the soap."

They dig and find a few bones; a grinning skull; it has fragments of tow-colored hair clinging to it. It has a broken tooth. Quantrell's hair was tow-colored. He had a broken tooth.

College Bills in 1935
Old documents brought to light at Brunswick, Maine, reveal extraordinary economic changes in undergraduate life at Bowdoin college. In 1835 the tuition for an entire year was placed at $24. A year's room rent cost only $10, board in the commons amounted to $40 a year. Incidental charges on college bills totaled another $10. Miscellaneous small expenses incurred, such as those for wood, lights, washing, stationery, use of books and furniture, was rated at $30. The entire expense list for a year at Bowdoin came to less than $200.

LAST NIGHT on the RADIO

The beauty and delicacy of the flower as expressed in music will be the theme of the Mobilioli concert June 26. This is one in a series of special programs arranged by Erno Rapee, conductor of the 50-piece Mobilioli Symphonic Orchestra, for the first half of the summer. The concert will be heard every Wednesday night over the National Broadcasting Company System. Other offerings in this special series are a program of Austrian music to be broadcast June 12, an Italian program June 19, a patriotic American program July 3 and an all-Russian concert July 16. The American program will be in observance, musically, of Fourth of July and will include special arrangements of a number of stirring patriotic airs and other interesting features.

The story of a motor tour, brought to a successful conclusion by the seventeen-year-old son of the family, will be dramatically related when "Will-gum," an original radio sketch, is offered as the Soconyland program Tuesday evening at 7:30. The broadcast will be over the regular network of northeastern NBC stations.

Before the Luminous Dial
It is rather surprising to see that they had their way of telling the time in the dark centuries before luminous dials became the rage. In England there is a "clock-watch" of 1500, with pins at each hour by which the wearer could tell the time by touch; and as early as 1676 some craftsmen had turned out a fine alarm watch.

Perfect Diamond
The term "first quality" in a diamond signifies a stone absolutely white and free from all flaws and imperfections. The finest old East Indian, the Jagersfontein, the Rivers and the Blue Wessels diamonds are all approximately one grade.

Settlement in Lake
Midake is the name of a settlement located on a trestle about 12 feet above the surface of Salt Lake. About 50 persons live in the houses along the railroad track in this town in the middle of the lake.

Allowed to Change Name
 People Frances Shepard bequeathed $50,000 to Christ Episcopal church at Charleston, S. C., with the provision that the church change its name to "St. Peter's church." A friendly lawsuit resulted in a ruling that the "defendants" are within their rights in proceeding to change the name of the said church.

Odd Wedding Custom
 After an Algerian wedding the bridegroom enters his house backward, holding a dagger in his hand, and the bride follows, touching the blade with the tip of her finger.

China sparkles when this cleaner gets to work

It's called Melo. It cuts grease on dishes. It cuts grease in dishwater. It saves hands. It saves soap, from 1/2 to 1/3 the amount ordinarily used. It prevents the forming of that dirty, scummy ring around the dishpan. Why? You can't clean anything until you have soft water. Melo does just that—makes hard water soft. Makes soap much more effective. It is a wonderful cleaner, even without soap. Get it at your grocer's.

Rigid Rules Laid Down for Wifely Deportment

Wifely comportment of the standard of 1393 is outlined in an excerpt from "The Goodman of Paris," recently translated into English for the first time by Eileen Power. The author, a Paris merchant, was sixty years old, his wife fifteen:

"When you go to town or to church you should be suitably accompanied, according to your estate, and especially by worthy women, and free suspicious company . . . and as you go, bear your head straight, keep your eyelids lowered and still look straight before you about four rods ahead and upon the ground, without looking nor turning your gaze upon any man or woman to right or to left, nor looking up, nor glancing from place to place, nor laughing nor stopping to speak to anybody on the road. And when you have come to church, choose a secret and solitary place before a fair altar or image, and there remain and stay without moving thither and thither, nor going to and fro, and hold your head upright and keep your lips ever moving saying orisons and prayers."—Kansas City Star.

THE SUMMER ENSEMBLE OMMITS SLEEVES AND IS CUT LOW AT THE BACK

New York—While cotton is highlighted in all sports wear collections, and women hither and yon are beginning to appear in cotton sunback sleeveless frocks, washable crepe manages to hold its own. Designers no longer hesitate to combine silk and cotton, and many a good looking cotton frock is worn with a silk coat or the other way about. Speaking of sports coats, there is a lively interest in flannel this spring, white flannel smartly tailored and unlined is one expression of this, blue another. There are also interesting uses of grey flannel for sports purposes and such coats are selected to be worn over either cotton or silk. While far from being a novelty, Chinese damask because of its excellent performance in the laundry remains a desirable material for summer frocks. A lively rivalry exists between one and two piece summer frocks. Both are correct whether sleeveless or not. The newest note may be the princess line for sports, and it may be true that one piece tennis and golf frocks are in order but there are many good looking two piece models being worn.

Yellow is one of the new colors, but in a soft banana-tone. The feeling in sports circles this summer seems to be for less brilliant colors, although accessories, such as scarfs, jewelry, bags and footwear are gay enough, especially the gay little socks which are a compromise between being stockingless or not.

Belts and ties cut largely into the summer dress budget. It seems really the exceptional dress which is without some sort of bow at neckline, or some sort of belt.

Silverberg Wins Verdict for Work

In Supreme court the jury in the case of Harry Silverberg of this city against Harry Gilman of Middletown for work, labor and services, on Thursday afternoon brought in a verdict for plaintiff in $294.55, being the full amount claimed. Bernard C. Cohen for plaintiff; Thomas F. Conaghan of counsel; Scriber & Eager for defendant.

Silverberg, who conducts a cleaning and dyeing plant in this city, sought to recover a balance due on account for work which he did for Mr. Gilman covering a period of several months.

Mr. Silverberg claimed he did cleaning for Mr. Gilman and that there was a percentage held out on each payment during the summer season until the close of the season when this balance was to be paid. He claimed $400.55.

Gilman on the other hand claimed he made an agreement with Silverberg to have work done here for a lower price than Mr. Silverberg claimed; that he had paid his bill in full except for the final payment of $100 which he still owed. He denied there was withholding of any amount on garments until the end of the season but that he paid the charge each time the goods were delivered and received paid-in-full receipts. The $100 had not been paid because of damage which was done to some garments and for which no adjustment has been made. He gave Silverberg a check for the full amount but later stopped payment on the check when he found there should be some adjustments made.

Court discharged all the court attendants and jurors from service and the court adjourned the term sine die. This morning the court without jurors took up some equity matters.

NEW ERA LEAGUE HOLDS LAST MEETING OF SEASON

The New Era League of the First Presbyterian Church held its last meeting before the summer recess in the church parlors on Wednesday, June 5. A short business meeting was held after which a delightful and unique program was followed by all. The program was very satisfactorily planned and carried out by Mrs. Donald Atcham as chairman. It was called the "Birthday of Months." Tables were prettily decorated by different members to represent each month of the year, at which members were seated, and had a birthday in the month which their table represented. Five ladies from the Roundout Presbyterian Church were also invited.

The program is as follows: January Birthday singing, Joan Brigham

Cheese Rolling Rolls

Two Thieves to Jail

San Francisco.—Two San Francisco policemen had never seen a professional cheese roller in action before, and as a result they captured two would-be thieves.

Corporal John Reed noticed a large cheese rolling slowly down one of San Francisco's 32 hills and heeded it a furtive appearing character guiding its progress with a stick.

Corporal Reed took charge of the cheese's progress and guided it—as well as its previous master—to the city jail. The would-be thief confessed, but would not tell where he got the cheese.

Just as the thief was about to be locked up in rolled another cheese, and behind it came another policeman and another would-be thief.

The story just had to come out then. There was a big shipment of cheeses at pier 19 and some of the boys just couldn't resist the temptation of rolling them away.

Helpless Man Sends Dog

With Note to Neighbor

Cornell, Wis.—Charles Minick, a road patrolman, lay helpless in his bachelor home near here suffering from a violent attack of rheumatism. Minick called his albatross dog to the bedside, tied a message to the dog's collar and repeated the name of a neighbor several times. The message was delivered by the animal and Minick was taken to town and given medical care.

For Being Helpful

New York.—Disarming a holdup man is one thing, but trying to turn over the captured firearm to New York police is something else. Oliver Deardorff, taxi driver, did just that and was arrested for illegal possession of firearms.

Antigo, Wis.—Bounty was claimed recently by Woodie Gibbs on a wildcat that weighed 55 pounds and measured almost six feet from front paws to the tip of the tail.

Boy, 11, Sues Uncle;

Verdict a Spanking

Vinceland, N. J.—Bright, diligent Erwin Greenblatt, eleven, has ruefully voiced the opinion, "There ain't no justice."

An uncle promised Erwin $25 if he prospered in his studies. The boy skipped a grade in school and waited patiently for the reward, but the uncle forgot.

Young Greenblatt's injured feelings got the best of him and he decided to sue. Going to another uncle, a lawyer, he hired him as his attorney and suit was immediately started. The sued uncle then realized this was litigation and not joking. He complained to Erwin's father. Greenblatt, Sr., rendered a summary verdict ending the suit—a sound spanking was administered to the plaintiff.

Dazzy Vance Still Dazzles 'Em

Vance is the Most Effective Pitcher in the National League.

It was just sixteen summers ago when a red faced, awkward young giant came out of the Nebraska corn fields to pitch for Red Chest. He won 11 and lost 15 that summer—nothing to bring a high league scout that far west. Three years later he pitched such effective ball for Hastings in that same Nebraska league that he was signed by the New York Yankees. The first thing he developed in the big league was a sore arm.

For the next four years he was knocked around the minors with a vim and regularity that would have discouraged anyone who did not have a lion's heart.

Then his arm got well and he pitched so effectively for New Orleans in 1921 that Brooklyn signed him the next year.

Thus it was that Dazzy Vance began a major career in a class with that of Matty Johnson and Waddell. For seven consecutive years he has reigned without a rival as the strike-out king of the major leagues. His record for these seven years is 1,333 strikeouts.

During last season he fanned as many as 200 batsmen. After six seasons on the hill the big Nebraskan seemed to have as much speed as ever. In fact, he hung up his most impressive record in 1928 when he turned in an earned run record of 2.09, leading his league. He won 22 games and lost 10. This is a remarkable achievement when it is considered that Vance depends upon speed alone for his effectiveness. It has come to be a by-word among players and fans the big league circuit over that when Dazzy "beats down" he is unbeatable.

Still Hard Hitter

Cy Williams of the Phillies, at one time as fast as any player in the National league, is beginning to go back on account of his legs. He still hits the ball hard.

Tommy Loughran Ranked

First by His Manager

Joe Smith, manager of Tommy Loughran, light-heavyweight champion, in a talk over the radio, listed the eight leading heavyweights and light-heavyweights as follows:

1, Tommy Loughran; 2, Jack Sharkey; 3, James J. Braddock; 4, Paulino Uzcudun; 5, Young Stribling; 6, Max Schmeling; 7, Johnny Hisko; 8, Jim Maloney.

Smith said Loughran was the only boxer in the group who had not lost a bout during the last five years. He explained his high rating of Braddock, light-heavyweight contender, by saying that he believed the hard-hitting Jersey City boy had enough strength and skill to defeat all of the men rated below him.

Nothing Emotional

About Bob Meusel

There is nothing emotional about Bob Meusel, the clowning outfielder of the Yankees, who won the second game with the Athletics in their recent memorable series with a home run in the eighth inning with the bases filled.

In the clubhouse after the game, Bob was asked what kind of a ball he hit that gave the Yankees their second victory of the day.

"It was a curve ball," he answered.

"Was it a nice curve?" was the next question put to the outfielder.

"As nice as Rommel can throw," replied the outfielder.

"Well, it was a pretty nice hit," spoke up another one of Meusel's questioners.

"Well, a fair one," slowly remarked the outfielder.

Clouting Bob didn't appear to be excited over the biggest blow struck during the afternoon before the biggest crowd in the history of baseball.

Giving All a Chance

A sculptor in Poland has suggested to his government that it erect a "universal monument" in the form of a bronze bust, on which should be placed detachable heads which could be changed, according to who was most popular at the time.

BASEBALL NOTES

High latitude in Canada makes twilight baseball after dinner possible.

Albie Booth, freshman at Yale, has captained football, basket ball and baseball, a record.

Ray Lingre, out of the game last year with a sore arm, has been sold by the Cards to Rochester.

The Giants will try out a college southpaw when Johnny Hensel reports from the Villanova graduating class.

Fordham university will have a new baseball park for next season, Jack Coffey, graduate manager, announces.

In the spring a young man's fancy turns to thoughts of love. A minor league battery reads—Love and Spring.

Babe Ruth has been a big league player for 15 seasons and has an average batting mark of .347 for this period.

Harold Catcott, a catcher from Keosauqua, Iowa, has signed with the Dubuque team of the Mississippi Valley league.

Walter Hoyt, Yankee pitcher, first was signed by the Dodgers when he was the pitching sensation of Erasmus high school.

Johnny Bassler, formerly of Detroit, is the only catcher in American league history to finish a season with a perfect fielding average.

Walter Johnson made 21 wild pitches during the 1910 campaign, while Leon K. Ames, former Giant, bettered this by nine five years previously.

Billy Southworth, Card manager, is one of the few team pilots to come from the ranks of the outfielders. Most of them are catchers and infielders.

Harold (Ben) Turpin, right-hand pitcher, has been turned over to the Little Rock Travelers by the San Francisco team of the Pacific Coast league.

Jim Scott, former major league pitcher and now an umpire in the Southern league, spends his winter months working in a Hollywood studio as a carpenter.

We often think if there had been any baseball in the day of Janus, the two-faced chap in mythology, he'd have been a hard one to run down between the bases.

Pat Moran, former major league manager, has a nephew named Walter Sagen, who, while with a prep school in Massachusetts last year, won 22 out of 23 games. Two were no-hit affairs.

In the 11-inning game between Phillies and Giants April 23 there were 20 of McGraw's runners left on bases. Wiloughby, of the Phils, was wild, passing nine batters and hitting one, but he was tight in the places and the Giants scored but one run of him.

"Probation" and "Parole"

Quoting Judge Kavanagh: "Probation lets one who has been adjudged guilty of crime go from the courtroom without any punishment at all. Parole means forgiving the rest of the punishment after a guilty person has suffered a part."

America's Great Debt

to Alexander Hamilton

Without any question it was Alexander Hamilton who laid the foundations for the material prosperity of the United States.

He was the founder of our whole financial system. As our first secretary of the treasury in President Washington's cabinet, Hamilton devised the governmental funding system, the internal revenue bureau, the sinking fund, the national bank, the federal mint and currency system.

He was the father of the protective tariff and was the first to propose and vigorously defend the doctrine of the "implied powers of the Constitution." He was first to advocate internal improvements and the building of roads and bridges.

Talleyrand, one of his old friends, passing Hamilton's window very late one night, wrote:

"I have seen a man who made the fortune of a nation and labored all night to support his own family."

After his death his private affairs were found to be in a terribly tangled condition and it was only through a special act of congress that his widow was supplied with funds.—Thrill Magazine.

Scientists Not Agreed

as to Color of Moon

The moon is not white. It is brown; Mars is not red. It is green! These are the latest suggestions of astronomers. A committee of the Carnegie Institution, in Washington, reports that the apparent silvery whiteness of moonlight is due to contrast with the darkened sky. The actual color of the moon, they believe, is the dull brown of weathered rocks. This suggests that the surface of the satellite may have been weathered by oxidation at some previous time, although the moon is known to have no atmosphere now.

Mars, according to E. J. Connel of the Amateur Astronomers' Association, may be covered with green vegetation like the earth. The reason it appears red, he says, is that the light rays have to pass through the atmosphere of both Mars and the earth before they reach our eyes. These atmospheres filter out the blue and green rays but allow the red rays to pass. The three reasons most often given for the red color of Mars, says Popular Science Monthly, are that the planet is "rusty" with iron rust, that its soil and rocks are red or that it is red vegetation.

Simple Questions That Often Prove Pitfalls

Why is winter colder than summer? How deep does a scuttled ship sink, and why does air in a closed room get bad?

A recent examination of presumably well-informed people revealed that many a man of more than average education can be caught in pitfalls of ignorance.

Most people were caught over the first question. More than four-fifths said that winter is colder than summer because the sun is then farther away. This, of course, is wrong, the sun being nearer in winter. The real reason lies in the earth's changing tilt, which brings the sun directly overhead in summer and lower in the sky in winter.

Surprisingly common, too, was the idea that sunken ships do not go to the bottom, but float at some midway level. Heavy objects sink because they are denser than water. A ship sinks to the bottom because water's density remains virtually unchanged despite the enormous pressures encountered at great depths.

Air in a closed room gets bad because of the gradual exhaustion of the oxygen contained in the air, and not, as many people suppose, because of carbon dioxide gas exhaled by its occupants.

Idea, Foundation of Law, Traced to Democritus

In 1720 Francis Hutcheson, in his "Inquiry into the Original of our Ideas of Beauty and Virtue," wrote: "That action is best which procures the greatest happiness for the greatest number; and that worst, which, in like manner, occasions misery." This is the earliest known use of the phrase "the greatest happiness of the greatest number." It was used by Cesare Beccaria in his "Treatise on Crimes and Punishments," first published in 1764. Later Jeremy Bentham, the English political philosopher, wrote: "Pleasure was the first (unless it was Beccaria) who taught my lips to pronounce this 'sacred' truth—that the greatest happiness of the greatest number is the foundation of morals and legislation." The general idea conveyed by the phrase, however, is found in the writings of some of the ancients, notably Democritus—Pathfinder Magazine.

Term of Uncertain Origin

Authorities have never definitely traced the origin of the term "grass widow." It is to be found in many languages. Some believe that it is a corrupted form of "grace-widow"—that is, "widow by the grace of circumstances." There are no facts to substantiate this belief, however. According to Doctor Brewer, the modern use of the term seems to have originated among Anglo-Indians about the middle of the Nineteenth century from the practice of European husbands sending wives to the hills during the hot season in India. In this section the grass is plentiful.

First Excursion Train

On July 5, 1841, when a "Puffing Billy," hauling two dozen open railway "carriages"—they were called "tubs" at that time—steamed out of the station at Leicester, England, bound for Loughborough, 11 miles away, it marked an occasion memorable in railway annals, for it was the first excursion train ever run.

The train carried 570 passengers to a temperance meeting, and the organizer of the excursion was Thomas Cook, then a young printer of Market Harborough, later to become famous as the promoter of Cook's tours—Detroit News.

LINDBERGH'S PLACE AS AIR MAIL PILOT SEEN

Mystery of Three Lost Bags Cleared Up in Mexico City; Pilot, Lindbergh, Is Happy.

Brownsville, Texas.—Although the whole world is supposed to make allowances for a lover, stamp collectors of the country were beginning to be quite put out with Charles A. Lindbergh as an air mail pilot and to think he was a lot more intent on getting back to Mexico City than he was about safeguarding the cargo of letters he carried on the flight initiating regular mail service between Brownsville, Texas, and the capital of Mexico, when the mystery of three lost mail bags was cleared up recently and all question of Lindbergh's responsibility dispelled. The affair was about to become an international fiasco when the missing mail was found.

Lindbergh flew the mail from Brownsville to Mexico City March 10 and turned it over to postal authorities without a suspicion that any of it had been lost.

Soon afterward, however, the government began to receive complaints from stamp collectors concerning the non-receipt of mail they had put aboard the plane. A checkup showed they were right, but it failed to reveal the whereabouts of the lost mail.

The State department and other departments of the government were appealed to. Senators and representatives began to receive indignant letters from philatelic constituents, who hinted at "Mexican plots," discrimination and whatnot. The thing began to look serious when G. W. Bennett, postmaster of Brownsville, received a long telegram from the postmaster of Mexico City, which explained everything.

The missing mail bags, he said had been found nearly a month after the flight, far out in the hollow all metal wings of the tri-motored monoplane which Lindbergh had flown.

There is a mail compartment in the center of the wing, and the motion of the plane in flight was credited with having thrown the three bags outward toward the wing tips, where they lay unnoticed and unguarded until the plane was undergoing a thorough periodical inspection at Merida, Yucatan.

To remedy the hardship worked on the stamp collectors whose mail was in these bags, the Mexican postal authorities set back their cancellation stamps and reentered the letters under date of March 10 "so as to preserve their philatelic value." Once more all was serene. Lindbergh, unaware through it all that his star as a mail flyer was ever observed by a cloud, again has the unanimous support of the stamp collectors.

Moves His Home When He Changes Schools

Columbia, Mo.—John Davenport of Mercer, Mo., wanted to go to college but didn't have the money to pay room rent, so he built his own home and moved it to Trenton so that he could attend junior college there. When he has completed his two year course he will move his little house to Columbia and finish his college education at the university.

When Davenport wants to "move" he pulls twenty-five bolts and the house is ready to be packed on a truck. He can rebuild it in six hours. He plans to settle outside the city limits, or wherever he can find the cheapest site. The house is a one room affair, heated by a little coal stove. John cooks his own meals on a three burner oil stove.

He gets his supplies from the store-room of home canned vegetables and fruits at home. He uses his car to transport the food.

The windows are large and neatly curtained. The furniture is adequate, but meager. The little shelter is electrically lighted.

Columbus' Chains

Columbus was carried back to Spain after his third voyage and during the trip he was such a sorrowful figure and the captain of the vessel had so much respect for him that he wanted to remove the chains, but Columbus refused, saying that they were put on by orders of their majesties and they must be removed the same way. Of course, when he reached Spain and was ordered freed, his request that they be given him was granted and his grandson writes that they never left him. It was his dying request that they be buried with him, and this was done.

KAISER'S SISTER IS WRATHY AT CRITICS

Defends Her Marriage; Will Join Husband.

Paris.—Princess Victoria, the Kaiser's sister, is angry with her critics in the Hohenzollern family and in Germany itself.

Her husband, the first Baron Zoubkoff, cheerfully explained that his wife was entirely out of sympathy with those who have protested the marriage, and stated further that Princess Victoria still thinks the world of him.

Zoubkoff himself is still the happy adventurer that he was, and despite the number of contracts that he has had offered him recently he has let them all pass, preferring to contemplate the world from the viewpoint of an aristocrat.

May Work Together.

"I am going to bring the princess to Paris," Zoubkoff said, "and, if necessary, we will go to work together. We might even open up a night club. The princess says she will work as a bar maid rather than yield to her critics. This is entirely possible, as the princess will do anything I tell her."

The princess herself is still furious with the officials of Buckeburg, the capital of the German principality of Schaumburg-Lippe, who have protested so actively against the ex-Kaiser's sister marrying Zoubkoff. The princess said in a recent interview:

"The measure of brutalities and humiliations they have heaped upon me is full, and I shall defend myself to the last breath against the unchivalrous and malignant fighting methods of my antagonists. I do not believe there is anyone besides those nearest to me who realize what means my enemies have used to bring me to my knees. They may starve me to death, they may force me into the worst of calamities, but they can never break my will."

"I know the fight is directed not so much against my own person as against my husband. But my enemies at Buckeburg utterly fail to realize that their brutal tactics are driving me ever closer into the arms of those they so lovingly wish to liberate me from. I am alone. They have forcibly taken my husband from me. All the cares and problems of the last few months have fallen on me alone."

"What ridiculous nonsense it is to claim that my husband and my lawyer are exploiting me. One cannot rob where there is nothing to rob. The Buckeburgers have left me nothing, not one penny of annuity."

Princess Victoria admitted that her lawyers might conceivably have used strange methods to collect money for her, but she points out that, after all, money was necessary to keep up her modest household.

Had Title Annulled.

She said, further, that the officials at Buckeburg had her title annulled behind her back despite the fact that the title is properly registered in the palace at Bonn.

"Without warning I was told I must vacate the greater part of the palace and that certain parts would be walled in for use of the Buckeburgers. The walls were built in, excluding me from my drawing rooms and apartments. My house, thus arbitrarily rented out to others, brings in $400 yearly, which I do not get. This is only one example of my enemies' tactics."

"The worst of all is that I am no longer in touch with my husband, because I have no longer use of the postal facilities; but I will stick to him through thick and thin."

Ceremony Takes Place

After 300-Year Wait

Washington.—A ceremony has just taken place in the city of Mantua, Italy, which was planned for the year 1640. At that time, under the city's ruler, Duchess Maria, arrangements were made to put a golden crown studded with jewels on the head of a statue of the Blessed Virgin, under whose protection Mantua had officially been placed, says the Pathfinder Magazine. But because of disturbed times the ceremony did not take place.

A second attempt was made a couple of centuries later and everything was ready when Napoleon's army overran the town and his soldiers carried off the crown.

Finally another subscription was taken up for the crown, and it has at last been placed on the head of the statue, which waited nearly 300 years.

Too Many Bowlegs;

Judge Rules on 'Em

Lexington, Ky.—The family of Jerry Miller, residing near Irvington, Ky., southwest of here, is the champion bowleg family of Kentucky, according to a revelation just made before Judge Holland in county court. The family has seven children and scores 100 per cent in bowlegs.

The father was recently brought before County Judge Holland by officials of the hospital bureau and an effort made to force him to have his younger children operated on to straighten their legs. After consideration of the problem Judge Holland decided that an operation was not necessary as Mary Miller, aged fourteen, the oldest of the seven, who had bowlegs for several years of her earlier life but has now practically outgrown this infirmity.

Not Accepted Measure

The "load" is an indefinite measure, not generally recognized by state laws in this country. In Great Britain a load of earth or gravel is one cubic yard; a load of lumber is 50 cubic feet; a load of wheat is 49 bushels; a load of oats is 30 bushels, etc.

Boys Engage in Ale Smuggling

Buffalo, June 7 (AP).—The Erie county sheriff's investigation into the mysterious disappearance of "Bobby" Reprich, 18, of Tonawanda has led to startling revelations concerning predictable smuggling across the Niagara river by boys in their teens. The boy left Bridgeburg, Ont., the night of May 15 with a rowboat load of ale, witnesses said. He was heard to cry for help. He vanished with no further cargo.

Statements taken by Sheriff Charles F. Zimmerman, suggested the youth was the victim of hi-jackers, who ply the river in motorboats. High profits lure boys into the ale running game, the sheriff said, some of them making $50 to $100 a night. According to his statements, they get $1 a bag of ale, and can easily row over a load of 50 bags at one time. The sheriff said the shipping costs $.20 at Bridgeburg. The sheriff was told. The boy who brings it over gets $1 and a fee of 25 cents a bag.

for storing it in a boathouse on the American side, and another 25 cents for hauling. The bag sells for from $8 to $8.50 on this side.
